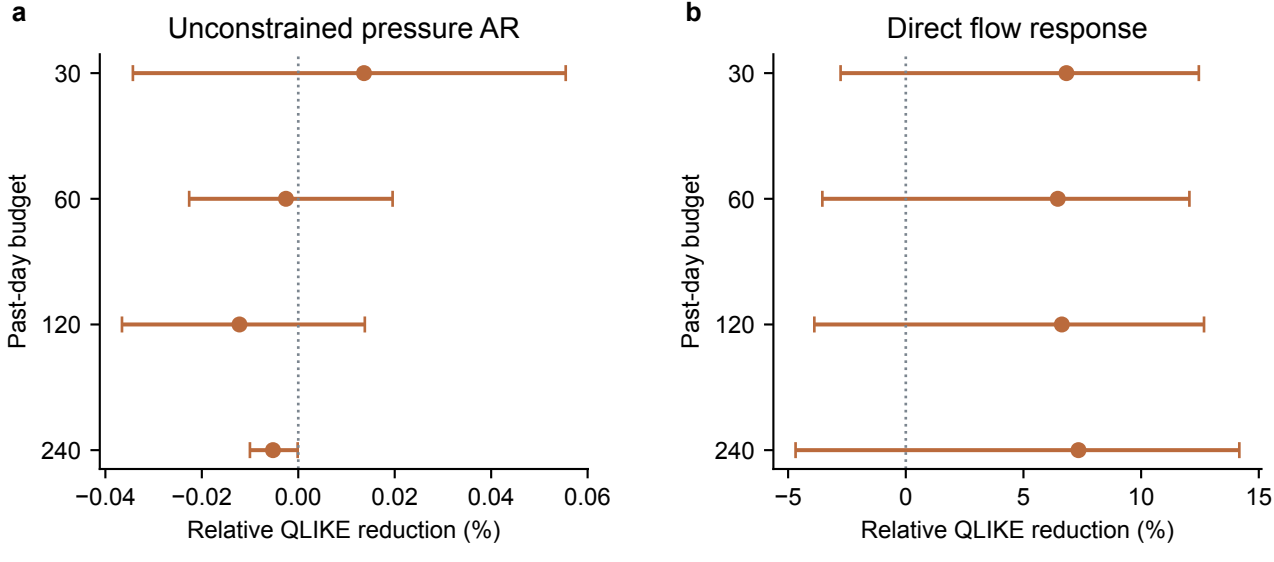
The restriction adds no benefit over the same-map pressure control

Paired relative loss reduction; the full primary family contains 12 budget/control contrasts



Whiskers: individual 95% basic paired block intervals, scaled by reference mean. Holm tests remain in the tables.

A better point score against direct flow does not establish a benefit from the nonlinear, sign-constrained mechanism.